

Would you like your child to learn to play a musical instrument?

Our teachers are selected for their ability to teach music to children of Primary School age and can help you choose the best instrument for your child. Phone our office to arrange a free assessment session.

Lesson price*: £63 for a term of ten, 20-minute small group lessons with individual attention for each pupil). Individual lessons are also available - please call our office for details of availability and price in your school.

Music books: The music your child needs, whether as a beginner or as they progress, is available to purchase from our office.

Repairs: We are able to do most repairs to woodwind and brass instruments in our local workshop at very reasonable prices. We can often let you have a free loan of a replacement instrument while your is in repair (subject to availability)

Lessons: Children usually achieve best if they start music lessons after they turn 7. Lessons are usually given during the school day as agreed with your Head Teacher. Pupils receive individual attention within a small group (usually 2 or 3 pupils) for 20 minutes ten times a term (usually 5 lessons before half term and 5 after). Lessons include music theory, aural training, instrument care, group work and general music skills as well as instrument technique. Progress is carefully monitored and is recorded in the tutor book. Formal exams are also available when your child attains key levels.

*Prices correct at time of printing
† AIPS (Assisted Instrument Purchase Scheme) also available through most schools (parents pay no VAT on the instrument). No buy-back option available with this purchase method.

Instrumental music lessons are available here on:

Flute, jFlute (small), Bb Clarinet, Cclarinet (small), Alto Saxophone, Cornet, Trombone, pBone/mini (small trombones), Guitar, Keyboard or Recorder

Learning to play a musical instrument is a great way to stimulate and help co-ordinate thinking and physical action and, of course, is great fun and very satisfying. Playing also develops confidence, concentration and team skills.
